TOWN TOYOTA CENTER

For Immediate Release:

RAIL WILL OPEN FOR STYX!

-TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 2021-

Wenatchee, WA – RAIL, the ‘70’s and ‘80’s rock band will open for the multi-platinum rock band STYX on Tuesday, September 21 at the Town Toyota Center.

RAIL-Terry James Young (Vocals, Bass), Rick Knotts (Guitar), Andy Baldwin (Guitar), Kelly Nobles (Drums) have performed live all over the United States with mega rock bands like Van Halen, Heart, Ted Nugent, The Beach Boys and more. RAIL’S original crowd favorites include “Hello”, “Bandit”, and “1-2-3-4” found on their re-released Special Editions albums.

This rock concert celebrates the re-opening of the Town Toyota Center since the doors closed to the public on March 13, 2020. “We are so excited welcome guests back to the arena and entertain you,” states Mark Miller, general manager of the Town Toyota Center. “The show will allow guests to have fun, relax and enjoy our shiny, clean facility. It really is a time to celebrate so much,” adds Miller.
